County Election Office Hours Extended for Voter Registration Deadline for General Election

FREEHOLD, NJ – Tomorrow, Tuesday, Oct. 16 is the New Jersey Voter Registration deadline for the General Election.

Voter Registration forms for Monmouth County residents can be delivered to the Monmouth County Superintendent of Elections Office and/or your Municipal Clerk.

The Superintendent of Elections Office and three municipalities will have extended hours leading up to the Voter Registration deadline.

The following will have extended hours tonight, Oct. 15:

- Freehold Township: Open until 7:30 p.m.
- Spring Lake Heights: Open until 7 p.m.

The following will have extended hours tomorrow, Oct. 16:

- Monmouth County Superintendent of Elections Office: Open until 9 p.m.

- Bradley Beach: Open until 8 p.m.

For all other municipalities, please contact your Municipal Clerk's Office to confirm their office hours.

All three Monmouth County Election Offices, including the Superintendent of Elections, are located at 300 Halls Mill Road in Freehold Township.

The Voter Registration form for Monmouth County residents can be found on our Elections website at MonmouthCountyVotes.com and our free Monmouth County Votes Mobile App, which is available in the Apple App and Google Play Stores.

For additional questions about registering to vote, please contact the Monmouth County Superintendent of Elections Office by calling 732-431-7780.
