County Clerk Christine Giordano Hanlon Hosts Meet and Greet of Monmouth County Historians

MANALAPAN, NJ – Monmouth County Clerk Christine Giordano Hanlon hosted a “Meet and Greet” of the local Monmouth County Historians on Thursday, March 27, 2019 at the Monmouth County Library Headquarters in Manalapan. The meeting gave historians from all 53 municipalities of Monmouth County the opportunity to meet, share ideas, and discuss issues. During the event, the historians learned about each other’s organizations and the many resources the County provides to local historical groups and municipalities.

Special guests included Freeholder Lillian G. Burry, Director of the Monmouth County Historical Commission John Fabiano, and the new Executive Director of the Monmouth County Historical Association, Meg Sharp Walton.

Monmouth County Archivist Gary D. Saretzky, who oversees the County Archives Division of the County Clerk's Office, presented information about the history of the Monmouth County Archives and the many types of records that the office preserves and stores. Saretzky also made a presentation showing how to navigate the Archives Division's Searchable Databases on the County Clerk's Office website at MonmouthCountyClerk.com.
