County Clerk Hanlon Honored by the Greater Ocean Township Chamber of Commerce as 2022 Community Ambassador

Award honors an individual for their excellence in community and public service

OCEAN TOWNSHIP, NJ – Monmouth County Clerk Christine Giordano Hanlon has received the 2022 Community Ambassador Award from the Greater Ocean Township Chamber of Commerce (GOTCC). Monmouth County Commissioner Director Tom Arnone presented the award to her on behalf of the GOTCC at their Annual Awards and Installation Luncheon on March 8 at The Renaissance in Ocean Township.

The Community Ambassador Award is presented to an individual who has gone above and beyond to educate and advocate for our community. The award also honors the individual's support of the Greater Ocean Township Chamber of Commerce and its mission.

Hanlon is currently serving in her second term as Monmouth County Clerk and has served in the position since 2015.

Hanlon was president of the Greater Ocean Township Chamber of Commerce from 2003 to 2005 and is a former recipient of the “Outstanding Chamber Service Award” from the organization.

“Receiving this award from the Greater Ocean Township Chamber of Commerce is especially meaningful, as I began my career in public and community service while serving as president of this wonderful organization,” said Clerk Hanlon.
