County Clerk Hanlon Announces Reopening of Weekend Hours at Monmouth County Connection

The Clerk's Satellite Office will be open each Saturday beginning April 2

NEPTUNE, NJ – Monmouth County Clerk Christine Giordano Hanlon is pleased to announce the reopening of Saturday hours at the County Clerk's Monmouth County Connection Satellite Office in Neptune beginning this Saturday, April 2. The County Connection office will be open to serve the public Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

At this time, all County Clerk Offices are open to the public but an appointment is required for certain services. Appointments for passport, notary, and Veteran ID card services can be made by calling the Monmouth County Connection during normal business hours at 732-303-2828.

“We are pleased to announce the reopening of weekend hours at the Monmouth County Connection to better serve the residents and customers of Monmouth County,” said Clerk

Hanlon. “We look forward to providing the public with more convenient hours for our many government services.”

The Monmouth County Connection serves as a satellite office to the Monmouth County Clerk’s Office and assists residents with passport applications, swears in Notaries Public, and issues Veterans Discount Cards and Gold Star Parent Cards.

The Monmouth County Connection is located at 3544 State Highway 66 in Neptune.

For more information regarding the available services, please call the County Connection at 732-303-2828.

For questions for the County Clerk’s Office, please call 732-431-7324 or email CountyClerk@co.monmouth.nj.us.
